SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Since 27 September all Yugoslav military craft held maneuvers in the waters off Zara and Sibenik. The tanker MARIA M, on 29 September met the T-1 and T-5 units (sic), six PT boats, the mine layers MELINE and MILIJET, and other units in the waters off Zara. This information was confirmed by one Dujmovich, a Yugoslav sea captain who fled from the vicinity of Dubrovnik and arrived in Bari on 1 October 1948. The captain stated he delayed his escape a few days to wait until the two PT boats stationed at Dubrovnik left to participate in the maneuvers.
